

BOOK SIGNING

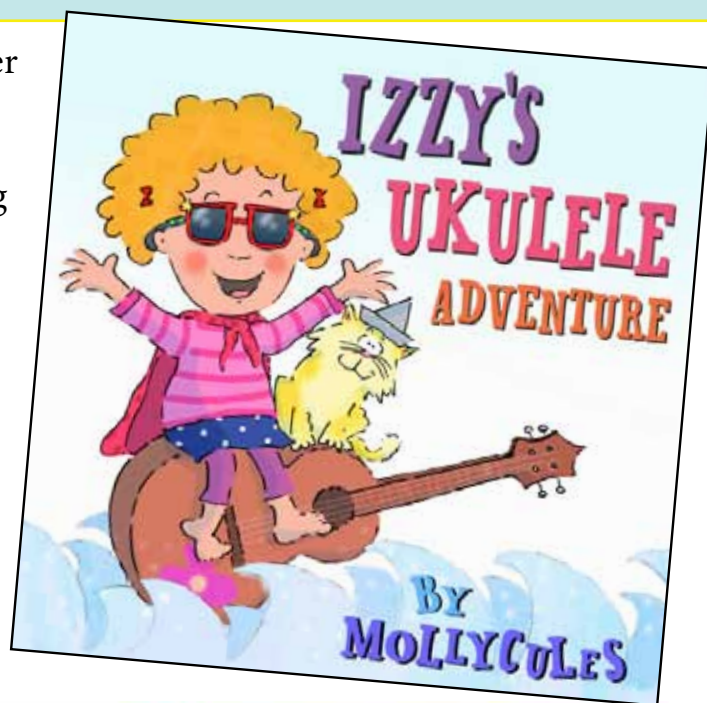

With children's illustrator & writer Molly Hahn ("Mollycules")
For the release of her new book, "Izzy's Ukulele Adventure"

Dec 10th 11am - 2pm Santa Barbara Sheet Music
1036 Santa Barbara Street

On another seemingly ordinary morning, Izzy and her mom stop by the flower stand on the way to school. While picking flowers for her teacher, Izzy is surprised by a musician playing the ukulele. The song he played sounded so magical that it made Izzy want to learn how to play ukulele, too!

Learning a new instrument isn't the easiest task for Izzy, but she discovers (through some tears and sore fingers) that practice and patience can unlock an entire world!

32 Pages, Soft Cover $14.95
www.mollycules.com

"...a modern-day Seuss. Her whimsical drawings are nothing short of delightful and her books impart subtle messages of self-confidence and acceptance."
- Jenna McCarthy, author of The Parent Trip

Molly is the illustrator & author of the children's books, "Izzy's Ukulele Adventure", "All the Things I Can Do!", "Under the Sneeep Tree: The Wamboozing of a Village". She has been teaching illustration, cartooning, and animation workshops to elementary schools since 2004 and has over six years of professional experience working as an illustrator and designer.

Molly was the 2010 Recipient of the SCWBI Regional Grant.